

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL OFFICE

JANUARY 4, 2012

Dear Parents,

Happy New Year to your family! We hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and are looking forward to a good year. As the year begins, we must start to prepare for the next school year. You can help by telling your neighbors who have children ready to start school about All Saints. The annual Catholic Schools Week Open Houses are Sunday, January 29th from 12:00-12:00 p.m. and Wednesday, February 1st from 9-11 a.m.

The eighth graders will be completing their applications for high school next week. There are a variety of schools to which they are applying. Congratulations to Matthew Niedoba who is being recognized this evening as an Ignatian scholar at St. Ignatius High School. Matthew excelled on the school's admission test.

The end of the quarter is Thursday, January 19th. The last day for Accelerated Reader tests to count for second quarter is Thursday, January 12th. Junior High students should also turn in all service hours by the last day of the quarter.

A long weekend is coming up for the students. There is no school on Friday, January 13 (the teachers have an all-day Religion inservice) and Monday, January 16 (Martin Luther King Day).

Today you are receiving the letters from the room mothers about the Ladies Luncheon Classroom Baskets. Please be sure to ask each of your children for the letter (only the youngest child's letter is in the folder). Your help with one of the room's baskets is greatly appreciated.

On behalf of the teachers and staff, we thank you for all your kindness and help the days before Christmas especially with the Christmas parties. As people often say All Saints is not just a community it is a family.
